The Motorcade Takes This Route Next Monday

The long heralded Motorcade over Federal Highway No. 90—The Border Way starts next Monday, October 21. Joe Dillon, Director General of the Motorcade, O. H. Miller and probably others from here will make the trip, and a good time and a profitable trip is anticipated.

Mr. Dillon furnishes us with the following data on the trip:
MOTORCADE TO ADVERTISE U.
S. HIGHWAY NO. 90 AS THE SCENIC ROUTE OF SOUTHWEST

For months extensive preparations have been in progress for the pilgrimage from San Antonio to El Paso, beginning October 21, at San Antonio, and there remains only a few days until this long looked for event will be a reality.

Almost every town on the line will furnish a number of cars and travelers who will join the caravan the day it reaches their town.

Beginning at San Antonio, two bus loads, some sixty or more people will move west increasing as they continue along the way. Lunch will be taken at Uvalde, October 21, overnight stop at Del Rio, lunch on the 22nd at Sanderson, and the night will be spent at Alpine, lunch at Van Horn October 23 at about 11 a. m.

and on into El Paso at 6:22 p. m.
Stop will be made at all points spreading the good news of U. S.
Highway 90.

Accommodation will be arranged for at each of these places, and it is imperative that the number who will be in the party be known as soon as possible. Each one will pay his own expenses, but must be arranged for in advance as there will be perhaps some three or four hundred in the caravan.

The motorcade will disband at El Paso and pleasant side trips on return can be planned. You are expected. Don't miss this great opportunity.

RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIA- TION RE-ELECT.

At a meeting of members of the Retail Merchants Association, held at the office of the Hondo Lumber Co.
Thursday night, the old officers were all re-elected.

They are as follows: Felix Batot, president; Henry Merriman, vice-president; J. R. Chancey, treasurer; Joe Dillon and Barnitz Carle were elected to membership on the Board of Directors to succeed R. A. Carter, out of business, and Garland Martin,
no longer a member.

Willie Crow was re-employed as secretary of the organization.

The Association now numbers sixteen active members, and a committee was appointed to solicit members from the local business men not

The purpose of the organization is to promote a better understanding and co-operation among business men and to improve the town as a trade center. One of the means of accomplishing this is by mutual protection against the deadbeat. In discussing matters of this kind the secretary, Will Crow, said 90 per cent of deadbeats were not such from choice but one such from reckless indulgence in credit which involved them so heavily that they were unable to ever pay. In enabling such people to keep from becoming hopelessly involved in the first place, the Association renders a service of inestimable value to the public, aside from that to the immediate membership.

The Association will meet again at a 7:00 o'clock luncheon on Friday night, November 15.

AT THE BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Business is booming in the Baptist Sunday School. It is being better organized each Sunday and interest seems to be on the up-grade. They have an enrollment of 130 members including 14 teachers and 3 officers.
82 were reported present last Sunday.

Each Sunday as they register, the pupils grade themselves on six points as follows:

20 per cent being present.
10 per cent being on time.
10 per cent bringing their Bible.
30 per cent having prepared their lesson.

20 per cent attending church services.

The Juniors deserve mention for having the highest department grade last Sunday. Their average was 61 per cent. The Adult department came next with a grade of 55 per cent, then the Intermediates with 49 per cent. The Young Peoples Department trailed the list with 48.

The Beginners and Primary Departments are in this game too, and we hope to be able to give them a grade by next Sunday.

100 per cent pupils last Sunday were: Emma Buss, Evelyn Knopp, Dorothy Mae Moore, Neville Holley,
Billy Fusselman, Mrs. H. Crow, Margaret Dillon, Leota Pettis, Ruby Neuman, Gladys Fusselman, Mayme Earnest, A. Nelson and W. Crow.

RUCKER, PETTIS, OWL ENDS, STAR AS HONDO DEFEATED BY COTULLA COWBOYS 13-6

Poor Tackling Causes Local Team To Lose Second District Game of Season

By Kooter MacGrail

Poor tackling on the part of the Owls caused Hondo to be defeated 13 to 6 by Cotulla last Friday at the Pearsall Winter Garden Fair. This was the second district game for Hondo to lose. Poor interference and the lack of uninjured backfield players for substitutes were also factors in the Hondo defeat. B. C. Rucker and Leo Pettis, lanky Owl ends, were the stars of the game, winning the praise of all present, including the Cotulla fans. They completed numerous passes tossed by Windrow and never dropped or fumbled a pass that they got their hands on. Rucker scored the lone Owl tally by taking a 20-yard pass from Windrow and stepping across the goal line. Two plays prior to the touchdown, Windrow, Rucker and Wilson worked a double pass for 17 yards. On the kickoff, Hondo pulled an offside kick with Pettis falling on the ball before the bewildered Cowboys realized what was happening.

The game was climaxed by Hondo's race to Cotulla's 3-yard line. Jones swiped a short pass thrown by Matthews of Cotulla, shook off three tacklers and made 22 yards before being downed. Windrow then passed 10 yards to Finger, who aided by interference by Pettis made 10 more before being down by Cotulla's safety man. Windrow went 20 yards to the 3-yard line on a fake play. There Windrow tried a short pass, but Cotulla's tall linemen batted in down and the game was over with a movie like finish.

First Quarter

Windrow won the toss and chose to kick with Cotulla defending the south goal. Hondo pulled an offside kick with Pettis recovering. Windrow made 5 yards around right end. Cotulla interfered with the receiver of the pass and was penalized 4 yards. Finger went around left end for 9 yards and first down. Windrow passed to Rucker for 9 yards. Leinweber made 5 yards and first down. Windrow got 3 yards at right end. Finger was stopped with no gain. Hondo penalized 5 yards. Pettis grabbed Windrow's high pass

Though it may be discouraging to know that there are forty or more insect pests that may attack your stored grain, it is consoling to learn that any of them can be controlled by carbon disulphide. This material although highly inflammable, is particularly adapted as a fumigant in the small elevator or the average grain bin or crib on the farm where the fire hazard can be controlled.

The farmer who can diversify his farm operations next year, so as to make his dairy cattle, his poultry, his vegetable garden or some other profitable side-line bring in enough ready cash to meet necessary living expenses and avoid the crop-mortgage with its attendant extortionate credit prices will be the farmer ahead when a reckoning is made of the year's results.

CHICK BREEDING METHODS THAT HAVE BROUGHT SUCCESS FOR ME.

By Mrs. Irvin Pickle.

I never feed chicks till they are forty-eight hours old. Just before a chick emerges from the shell the yolk of the egg is drawn into its body and by this the chick is nourished during the first forty-eight hours of its life. No harm will result if no feed is given them for sixty, or even seventy-two hours. When feed is given them before forty-eight hours have passed, indigestion is sure to follow and bowel trouble will be the result. They must have time to assimilate the egg yolk before crowding their stomachs with feed. They need only to sleep and rest for the first few days of their lives and should be kept warm.

After they are forty-eight hours old, I place them in a box or coop the floor of which is covered to a depth of about an inch with coarse clean sand. A fountain of water is placed before them and they are allowed to pick at the sand for several hours before feed is given them.

Their first feed is the yolk of hard boiled eggs, just what they will clean up well in about ten minutes, five times the first day. This sounds expensive, but it isn't. The yolk of one egg will be sufficient for one feeding for about twenty-five chicks.

The second day I mix equal parts of whole hard boiled eggs, shell and all, yellow corn meal and clabber curd, and feed five times a day. I keep this ration up for the first week, then gradually reduce the egg and add wheat shorts till I have them on a ration of equal parts of corn meal, wheat shorts, and clabber curd.

When two weeks old I begin to chop green oats, onion tops, or lettuce for them and give them small chick grain. By this time the feed can be kept before them all the time and they will grow like weeds.

Small oyster shell, grit, and charcoal are kept before them and plenty of clear fresh water in sanitary chick fountains. If I can't get oyster shell small enough for chicks, I put the large size in an old sieve and sift out the small shell for the small chicks.

The intellect of the wise is like glass; it admits the light of heaven and reflects it.—Hare.

Pontiac No. 99 Leads Life of Change And Adventure at Maywood, Ill.

The Pontiac Six, companion car of the long established Oakland, already is beginning to acquire some traditions of its own.

Many automobiles have completed their life history in much less time than has elapsed since the Pontiac Six first was introduced at the New York Automobile Show of 1926.

The first Pontiac Six gained such immediate favor that it established during 1926 an all time record for the first year sale of any new make of automobile. Since then it has been improved so steadily that today the Pontiac Big Six far exceeds in power, stamina and performance not only the Pontiac of 1926 but also the Oakland Six of the same year. Thus has automotive design progressed in less than four years.

So rapid has been this advancement that the many thousands of early model Pontiacs still in daily service are beginning to attract the mild interest of automotive antiquarians who have followed the Pontiac through the evolution marking its total production of more than 600,000 cars.

One old Pontiac, proudly inscribed with a large "99" to identify it as the ninety-ninth car to come from the Pontiac production lines, frequently is pointed out to visitors at Maywood, Ill. Having been driven more than 100,000 miles, it now is owned for the third time by Central Motor Sales and Service of Maywood, which thrice has taken it back in trade on newer models. The Pontiac now is used as a service car.

Twice during the last four years the Pontiac has been stolen. Following its recovery after the last theft, the back of the car was found to have been perforated by a charge of buck shot. But despite its wounds and its age, the owners expect to retain it in service for many years to come.

CHEVROLETS TAKE SEVERE TESTS AT PROVING GROUNDS

Chevrolet test cars at General Motors Proving Ground have already been driven upwards of five million miles, according to James M. Crawford, chief engineer of the company, who declared last week that use of this vast outdoor laboratory has been one of the principal reasons for Chevrolet's consistent success.

"An average of 12 test cars are in constant operation, plying up steep inclines, plowing through sand, mud and snow, driving into the teeth of heavy winds, testing speed and endurance on the track and subjecting themselves to every known performance trial," he said. These cars are not retired until they have been driven between 30,000 and 50,000 miles.

"After an experimental model attains this mileage it goes to the experimental laboratory to be dismantled. Every part is inspected, all evidences of wear noted. If a detail is not as it should be, work starts immediately developing a new part or process to replace the old.

The new feature is then built in an entirely new car or three new cars. The operation is vital and this in turn is subjected to the Proving Ground tests. The cycle continues until we have complete satisfaction. In the case of the new six, 100 different experimental models were tested over a period of four years.

"In addition to using the Proving Ground to develop new models and engine features, Chevrolet uses it constantly for checking production cars, and it is this phase of the work that is perhaps the most interesting to the public.

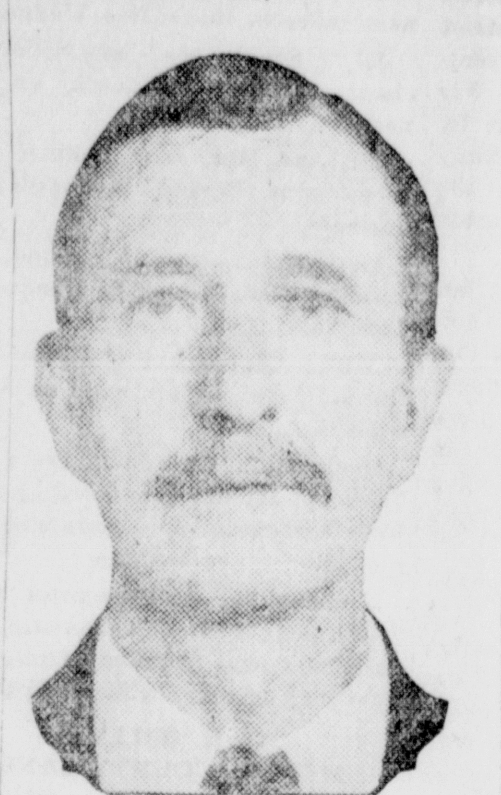

In order to get an unbiased opinion of these production jobs, they are selected at random from the shipping platform at Flint and put directly on the Proving Ground. Here they are given a general check before going on the regular schedule. "After every thousand mile for the first 5,000 miles they are ridden by the engineers. After this they are ridden at only 5,000 miles intervals. Performance checks are carefully computed after 2,000, 5,000 and 20,000 miles. At the end of 20,000 miles they are completely dismantled and all parts are thoroughly inspected.

"In this way a chart is set up showing the progress made in design and manufacturing practice from month to month and year to year.

"Follow up work on these production cars brings out forcibly the co-operation that exists between the manufacturing and engineering departments. Not only do the engineers have reports on these cars but the manufacturing division receives separate reports from its own organization inspecting these tests. Thus changes in manufacturing methods can be effected almost immediately."

HE WANTS TO TELL ALL HIS FRIENDS OF SARGON

"I've seen Dallas grow from a small town to a great city and I have many friends in Texas. I want them all to know about Sargon, and what it did for me.

Wm. D. VAUGHN

"My stomach was out of order for a long time. Although I ate very little, I was often in misery after meals and smothering spells would frequently wake me at night. I was constipated, my blood was thin and my color was as yellow as gold. I had severe pains in my back and sides and my kidneys would get me up all during the night.

"Since taking Sargon, I'm in better health than for years. I eat like a hungry school boy and can digest anything. There's not a pain in my body and I sleep good all night. Sargon Pills toned up my liver and ended my constipation. Now my skin has a good healthy color and I feel like a new man." Wm. D. Vaughn, 1910 S. Akard St., Dallas.

PRESERVE RESPECT FOR LAW.

In a recent address, United States Attorney Tuttle pointed to "the terrific crime bills" of the nation and the "obvious tendencies" in the country to disregard laws.

"The problems of the present," he said, "are in finding adequate means of checking crime, the application of law to modern life, and in preserving respect for law. With 350,000 criminals, whose destruction since the war exceeds that during the war, there is more crime and fraud in this country than in any other."

This statement by a man like United States Attorney Tuttle is a challenge to the law-abiding and law-respecting citizenry of our country who, despite newspaper accounts of murders, robberies and crime in gen-

The theme of the evening was attractively featured in the bridge accessories, decorations and refreshments; black cats and pumpkins predominating throughout, and giving the color motif of orange and black favored at this season. The personnel included Mesdames Barnitz Carle, Alfred Rath, Henry Windrow, Oscar Miller, T. D. McElroy, Wood Cameron, N. C. Johnson, Ed. Cameron, Misses Ina King, Erma Jackson, Frances Neuman, Velma King, Mary Crouch, Bess Brucks Janice Holloway and the hostess.

MEDINA COUNTY LEASING ACTIVE.

Leasing activity is said to have taken on renewed activity in Medina County the past few days. The Pan-American Oil Company is said to have completed a block of about 6,000 acres west of the town of Yancey on the Levi C. Harrison tract around survey 799. It is understood the Pan-American Company plans to sink three deep tests on this tract. It was also reported that the Humel block of 3,000 acres has been completed west of the town of Devine lying along the southwest edge of the Jacob Kemp survey and centering on the Jacob Keppler lands. The reports are that some 2,500 feet tests are being planned on this block.

Jake Marmon has spudded in his No. 1 Mamie M. Adams in the middle of the Adams gas field in Medina County. This is known as the old North and South lease in block 7 of the Mamie M. Adams. Expression of the New Cannon ranch.—Express.

It Pays to Diversify

The optimistic farmer plans to diversify his crops. And trusts to weather the storm and chance. And while his corn may be a rain. Wet hay to him would be a pain. Now the only thing for him to do is to diversify the whole thing. So if it rains and spoils his corn. It helps his corn and makes it pay. The HONDO STATE BANK would advise you to try No other way than diversify.

YANCEY NOTES.

Messrs. J. H. Null, George Heilig and J. G. Weekley made a business trip Wednesday.

Mr. T. H. Roensch, our vocational teacher, took his class to the Pearsall Fair Wednesday and were winners in a stock-judging contest, winning two cups and eleven dollars in prize money.

A good many from here attended the fair at Pearsall last week.

The ladies of the community spent the very enjoyable social day at the Pearsall Fair. There were four quilts up at the same time and every one was busy.

Mr. Henry Null and family spent the day at their old home in Mulberry.

Mr. C. H. McAnelly of Arlington here on a visit with his nephews, C. and P. D. McAnelly.

The trustees of the school have had a new well drilled on the campus. The old well had begun to cave in, and it was deemed cheaper to have a new well drilled than to work the old one over. There is a good flow of water in the new well at a depth of a hundred feet.

Misses Shultz, Hall and Lewis were in Hondo Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Dora Mae Wilson, who is one of San Antonio's teachers spent the week-end with homefolks.

Mr. T. A. Duderstadt is able to be home again after having been in San Antonio for several weeks, taking treatment for some ailment. We hope his recovery will be permanent.

BOEHLE-GRELL NUPTIALS.

One of the most beautiful weddings consummated in years in Bethlehem Lutheran church of Quibi took place there last Thursday, October 4, when Mr. Frank R. Boehle and Miss Amanda Grell joined hearts and hands for better or worst and for life and thus became husband and wife. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion in white and pink crepe and the altar and other parts with splendid bouquets and pot-plants.

The bridal party met at the parsonage, while their relatives and friends filled the church. Promptly at 4 o'clock p. m. the bridal party, led by the officiating pastor, Rev. C. P. Hasskarl, marched in procession to the deep toned notes of the church bell from the parsonage to the front entrance of the church, and from there, under the strains of the wedding march by Miss Hilda Bohmfalk, up the aisle of the church to the reserved seats before the altar. The church service was opened by a fine anthem by the church choir, of which both the groom and bride were charter members. The beautiful and impressive double ring service was used and the twain were declared one. A second and very appropriate selection by the church choir, with Mrs. Henry Schuele at the piano, followed by the benediction by the pastor, concluded the church service. To the strains of a lively march the bridal party marched down the aisle of the church to the vestibule where the happy couple received the congratulations and best wishes of the many relatives and friends present.

The bride wore a dark blue satin dress, as did also her sister, Miss Alma Grell, who was bridesmaid and Miss Florence Grell, who was maid of honor, while Aleen Grell, the charming little ring bearer, wore a dress of lighter hue. The groom wore a suit of dark cloth and so did Mr. Rolf Sathoff, the groomsmen and Mr. Edwin Grell, brother of the bride and best man. After the service at the church the bridal party and a number of relatives repaired to the farm home of the bride where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served and greatly enjoyed by all present. Several hours of cheer and general sociability, capped by a fine punch and cake luncheon concluded the program of the day.

Mr. Boehle, the groom, is an enterprising and progressive farmer and a young man of good habits and good report and is widely and favorably known in and about Quibi, his home community. Miss Grell, the bride is the charming, accomplished and highly respected daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Grell, who reside several miles east of Hondo. Both the groom and his bride, were active members of the Quibi Church choir. Sunday school and Luther League. For years Miss Grell was the organist of Bethlehem Lutheran church and Sunday school. For the next few months Mr. and Mrs. Boehle will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Luebbe Boehle, the parents of the groom, who live a mile west of Quibi.

The Anvil Herald joins the many relatives and friends of the young bridal pair in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

TEXAS AND TEXANS.

By Will H. Mayes

Candidates Plentiful

Already the woods and fields are thick with candidates for office, although the election is more than a year off, and already the candidates are learning that the voters are demanding to know the things for which they stand. Platitudinous promises are not going to satisfy Texans next year—they are going to insist on knowing specifically the things which candidates will do. Principles are going to outweigh personalities unless all the early signs are wrong. The hand-waving orator with a hog-calling voice will find himself unable to "sway the masses" with oratorical hypnotism. The people will want definite promises and especially from those entrusted with making the laws and spending the tax monies. There is a general feeling that the administration of government in Texas, from the highest State offices down to the lowest precinct offices, is costing entirely too much, and a harder effort than ever before will be made to secure men in office who will help to curb official greed and mismanagement.

Short Cotton Crops

The short cotton crop in many parts of the State is causing people to practice the utmost economy, and while this will be hard on them for the time it will eventually be a blessing. Diversification has been more preached than practiced in Texas until very recently. The farmers have learned at last that it does not pay to do cotton farming to the exclusion of other interests. The farmer with a small herd of dairy cattle, a few sheep or goats, some hogs and chickens, who grows his own fruit and vegetables has no cause to complain of hard times. He is prospering and especially when he grows a variety of crops, even though he may at times fail to make a profit from cotton growing.

Produce Plants

A few years ago most of the produce raised by the farmers of Texas was sold to their local merchants, who made the buying of farm products a side line of merchandising as a method of collecting debts. There were few "produce merchants" who followed buying farm products, other than a few staple crops, as a business. Now, almost every town has several firms engaged in competitive buying and selling of farm produce, and these firms are having to enlarge their plants to handle their growing business. Kennedy is one of the small cities where a plant is being enlarged to handle the turkey and poultry business that is expected this fall. When completed, it will be one of the largest produce houses in that section of the state.

Band to Tour Europe

The Simmons University Cowboy Band of Abilene, has arranged to make a tour next summer covering a great part of Europe. Nearly 300 Texans will accompany this band, the purpose being both to see Europe and to advertise Texas. This should be a great educational trip for those who go and for the countries visited. The good what will be accomplished will depend largely on the personnel of the party, which should be, and doubtless will be, composed to Texans who will reflect credit on the State. In Texas the tour will result in much favorable publicity for Simmons University.

American Legion Band

O. L. Bodenhamer, whose home at present is at Eldorado, Arkansas, but who is a Texas young man, has been honored by being elected national commander of the American Legion. Major Bodenhamer was born in Mills county and educated in the public schools of Brownwood, at Howard Payne College, and at Baylor University. Before going to Arkansas, he taught in Texas schools, one position being with the State Teachers College at San Marcos. He is 39 and is unmarried. His mother lives at Brownwood, which he still calls home and where he will deliver an Armistice Day address, November 11. This is the second time The American Legion has elected a Texan as its national commander, Alvin Amsley of Denton and Dallas, having served in that position with much credit.

Rio Grande Valley Resources

Following a survey of the resources and possibilities of the Rio Grande Valley, the Interior Department says that with irrigation and proper cultivation, the rich valley would give a comfortable living to 2,000,000 people. There are 560,000 acres on this side of the river that have been converted "into a continuous market garden interspersed with orange and grape-growing orchards." There are 145 separate irrigation enterprises now operating, having a total valuation of about $20,000,000. This is a very small part of the area of good lands in Texas.

Highway Corps Duties

Motorcycles of the State Highway patrolmen, of whom there will be fifty, will carry first aid emergency kits to be available for automobile accidents on State highways. The corps of patrolmen will probably be ready about the first of the year to start on their duties of making the highways of Texas safer for travel. A school of instruction for the men will be held before they begin their work.

Smith County Farm Boys

At the Smith county fair, 35 boys of the county entered a contest for the best yields of corn in the county. The highest production was 914 bushels an acre on an upland farm, the average of all the crops being 50 bushels, against the average yield by the farms of the county of 8 to 10 bushels. The average cost of production was about 39 cents on the winning crop. With corn selling at $1.25 a bushel it is easy to see that corn growing was highly profitable. There are nearly a million Texas farmers who might learn some profitable lessons from those Smith county boys.

Pink Granite Demand

The pink granite company operating at Marble Falls is reported to have $250,000 in unfilled orders, with orders and inquiries coming in every day. Two shifts keep the plant running day and night. New machinery can't be installed fast enough to keep up with the orders. Immense sheds are being added to the plant and more will be built soon. Industries like this are helping much to make "times good" in Texas.

Llano Plant Enlarges

Marble Falls is not the only town in the granite section of Texas. Burnet and Llano are in friendly rivalry with the Colorado river town. Just recently a granite quarry company at Llano completed the construction of a steel and concrete working-shed, 70 x 880 feet in size. This company employs about 100 workmen and is one of the busiest concerns in Texas.

Carizzo Springs Builds

Carizzo Springs is building an $80,000 high school building, and has let a contract for street paving for a large part of the town. About 1,500,000 strawberry plants have been set out this fall in the surrounding section. The town is in the heart of the "Winter Garden" district and is steadily building into one of the important irrigation centers of Texas.

That Paris Creamery

The chances are that the $150,000 creamery and poultry plant being constructed at Paris is going to reduce Lamar county cotton growing very noticeable. Everywhere a plant of that kind is built, farmers soon begin to reduce their crops and use the land for feed crops for cows, chickens and hogs. The black land sections of Texas, once so famed for cotton production, are fast becoming equally as well known as dairy centers.

Gas Comes High

It must cost a great deal to get gas into Waco and surrounding towns. A gas company operating there has selling gas at 90 cents a 1,000 cubic feet, but under litigation on the part of the city that has lasted for fourteen months, the company now offers to make a net rate of 67 1/2 cents. Gas at the wells in Texas is selling at from 6 to 10 cents and the difference is said to be chargeable to piping and operating expenses.

Texas Prisoners Escape

This column deals mainly with the constructive things that are being done in Texas, but occasionally the writer is tempted to turn aside to say something about matters that can not be placed in that category. Perhaps the recent escape of 13 prisoners from the tubercular farm near Huntsville may be placed in that class.

The men who escaped were nearly all long-term prisoners, some of whom had made previous escapes from the penitentiary. They were sent to the Wynne farm, it is reported, because they were "unable to work." Yet they were able to make an opening in the kitchen floor, and dig a three foot tunnel, seven feet below the ground, for a distance of 70 feet, hide the dirt while at work for 30 days on the tunnel, and make their escape without arousing the suspicion of any penitentiary official or guard. It is doubtful if a better argument could be advanced for rebuilding and "reforming" our penitentiary system.

Who Wants a Penitentiary?

The penitentiary committee, which is preparing its report after spending the summer on an extended tour of inspection over a large part of the country, will doubtless recommend that the penitentiary be centralized in a plant to cost from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 somewhere within 20 to 50 miles of Austin. When the legislature meets again and the matter is submitted to it, in all probability there will be a long-drawn fight, and it may result in nothing being done. Some of the members who did not go on the inspection trip are already expressing their opposition to the adoption of the committee's report. It is doubtful if any community near Austin will consent to having a penitentiary system located in it without a hard contest. Texas is still far from a solution of its penitentiary problems.

Penitentiary a Disgrace

Governor Moody cannot suppress his indignation when he thinks about the Texas penitentiary system and the continued mismanagement that has cost Texas so much money, with the only net result being that it has made criminals all the more hardened. Governors before Moody have urged that something be done to better conditions and committees time and again have made reports in line with the findings of the most recent committee, but the legislature has always ignored all recommendation for a centralized penitentiary system, economical business management, and firm but humane treatment of prisoners. There is nothing in the personnel of the present legislature to lead to a hope of anything worth while being done.

Blanton Resigns Position

W. N. Blanton, the man who has done much of the hard work that has been responsible for the success of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, has resigned the secretaryship of that organization to become secretarial manager of the Houston Chamber of Commerce. Not long ago Homer D. Wade resigned from a similar position with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to become manager of the Dallas organization.

Both of these hard workers are to be commended for the wisdom they have shown in "getting from under" before their organizations are wrecked by politics, which is, more than likely to be the result if they are inveigled by political leaders into the campaign for an enormous road bond issue for Texas, as now seems probable.

Texas once had an influential State Chamber of Commerce, but it was converted into a political lobby at Austin and went the way of all business organizations that forget business for politics.

"Well, Did You Ever?"

Judge John A. Valls, district judge at Laredo, has resigned that position which paid $5,000 a year, to again become district attorney at $4,000 a year. He has served some 26 years as district attorney and had been a judge only a short while, and the lawyers who practiced before him say he is a good judge, but when K. L. Bobbitt resigned to become attorney general, Judge Valls asked to have his old job back. The reason he gave was that he had been district attorney so long that he had come to like the work better than having to try civil law suits that come before a judge. After all, it is better to do the work one likes best, even if it doesn't pay so well.

San Antonio-San Angelo Road

The promoters of the railway line from San Antonio to San Angelo announce that they have ironed out the objections that have been urged to their proposals by the other railroads and are now in position to go ahead with their work of securing the rest of the necessary money, after which the work will be started. The new road is to be capitalized for $1,800,000, and about $800,000 of that amount has been subscribed. It will cost approximately $6,300,000 but when the stock is subscribed and paid in, bonds for the rest of the money will be floated.

Rio Grande Valley Building

John E. Bell, secretary of the San Benito Chamber of Commerce, who seems to be good at figures, says, that the lower Rio Grande Valley has in the last two years spent $100,000,000,000 in improvements, of which three-fourths has been for public improvements and the other fourth for business and residence buildings. The territory included in the Valley is the three counties at the South point of the State, where so much fruit and vegetables are grown.

The marketing of the fall crop is just starting and it is estimated that 50,000 cars will be needed to get the fruit and truck to market. If you are good at figuring, you can work awhile on the amount of money that should bring into the three counties.

Electric Output

It is painful to a Texan to run across anything in which Texas does not lead all the country, but figures can't be disputed except by statisticians and income tax experts. Texas is 13th, among the States, in the output of electric current, or was in 1927, even West Virginia and New Jersey leading this State.

The use of electricity, however, is almost new in Texas, and by 1937 Texas will have moved up beside New York, Pennsylvania, California and Illinois, in consumption of electric current.

Showing Good Sense

Speaking of electricity is a reminder to mention that Granbury, in Hood county, has refused to sell its municipally owned light plant to a utility company. Even if a small town plant isn't quite as good as it might be and maintenance expense is a bit high, the small cities should be mighty slow to turn them over to outside corporations.

Sheep and Goats

That section of Texas known as the "Hill Country," with Kerrville as about the center, reports a large increase in the number of sheep and goats over the previous tax rendition. In Uvalde county, there was an increase last year of 36 per cent in the number of sheep. The goat increase was 8 per cent, but the county already had about as many goats as it could hold, the number counted being 155,155.

To Identify Genuine Aspirin

THE increasing use of Bayer Aspirin every year is proof that it has no ill effects. It is the accepted antidote for pain. It always helps; it never harms. Quick relief when you've a headache, or cold; or are suffering from neuralgia or neuritis. Rheumatic pains yield, too, if you'll only give these tablets a chance. But you want genuine Aspirin, so look for the Bayer Cross on every tablet. The box always bears the name Bayer and the word genuine printed in red.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

LOW INTEREST NEEDED.

By Harry L. Sexton.

Asserting that the major need of the wool and mohair co-operative marketing organizations, as well as all other co-operatives is low interest rates on funds necessary to interest their operations, Representative John N. Garner of Texas last week issued a statement urging that the federal farm board take action at the earliest possible date to relieve the situation.

"It was the intention of congress in passing the farm relief bill to relieve the situation created by high interest rates," the minority leader stated. From the testimony in recent hearings it is evident that two benefits can accrue to farmers and sheep, goat and cattle raisers and education in the direction of co-operation which will naturally lead to organization of co-operatives, and cheap money.

"There can be no criticism of the manner in which the federal farm board is endeavoring to confer the first benefit upon agriculture. This may prove of benefit to the industry. However, there seems to be unnecessary delay in giving agriculture the benefits of the low interest rates provided in the bill.

"Congress, by its legislation, has stated that the agricultural organization should have credit at 3 1/2 to 4 per cent, but the federal farm board is compelling some of the co-operatives now organized, as well as some of those organizing, to exhaust their credit at high rates of interest by financing either through individuals or the intermediate banks. This means that some of the co-operatives will be required to pay rates ranging from 5 to 7 per cent.

"The movement inaugurated to promote organization of co-operative would result in organization of practically all commodities. Experience has proved that such organizations must be adequately financed if they are to serve this purpose.

"It was the intent of congress to provide the means of financing at low rates of interest. Until this is accomplished, I doubt if the farm relief act will prove of real value to agriculture as a whole."

Inquiries by the Texas congressman elicited the information that representatives of the Department of Agriculture are endeavoring to interest vegetable and fruit growers of South Texas areas in co-operative organizations, and that excellent progress is being made with respect to the wool and mohair growers who are organizing to take advantage of the farm relief act in financing marketing of their products.

At the meeting of the farm board October 10 agreement was reached to make loans aggregating $3,550,000 to cotton and citrus co-operatives. A facility loan of $2,800,000 to the Florida Citrus Exchange is conditioned on first mortgage security, and loans to the Tennessee Cotton Growers Association and the South Carolina Cotton Growers Co-operative Association, aggregating $750,000, were approved. It is understood that interest rate was fixed at 3 and five-eighths per cent.

One condition of the loan to the Florida Citrus Exchange is that it shall be secured by first mortgages on packing plants of local units; that these properties be appraised by a nationally known appraisal company and that loan shall in no case exceed 80 per cent of the appraised value of any unit. A further condition of this loan is that the report of any audit now being made of the Florida Citrus Exchange by a nationally known firm shall indicate a condition satisfactory to the board.

As aids in producing early plants, the hotbed, the "flat" or box and the cold-frame are the gardener's best friends. Even berry baskets or paper hands or other containers can be used to start tomato, pepper, egg plant, cabbage, lima beans, melons, cucumbers and other garden crops indoors. As many as 30 to 50 hills of extra-early potatoes can be grown by starting the same number of seed pieces in a box in the living-room, or in a hotbed and later handling the plants as one would tomato plants.

Fall is the most advantageous time for the cow to freshen, winter the next best season, and spring and summer the least advantageous, according to dairy specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Cows that freshen in the fall rank highest, on an average, in yearly production of milk and butterfat and in income over cost of feed; and those freshening in spring or summer produce the least milk and butterfat and return the smallest income over cost of feed.

IN MEMORY OF GRANDMA HABY.

Dear Grandma, you have left us,
Lonely are our hearts today.
Death has of you bereft us.
Taken you far away.

You have crossed the dark, cold river,
Angels hold you by the hand,
You are safe from storm forever,
Safe within that promised land.

How we miss your gentle foot steps,
Miss each kind and loving word,
No more in this lonely household
Will your tender voice be heard.

Dear Grandma, how we loved you,
No pen can write, no tongue can tell;
But the gentle Shepard called you,
We must bid a long farewell.

For alas, the Savior called her,
Called her from this world of woe,
And her spirit has ascended
From this earthly home below.

So, farewell, farewell, dear Grandma,
You have only gone before,
For if we are but as faithful
We shall reach the golden shore.
—Her Grand Children.

THE SCOUT EXECUTIVE'S SCHEDULE FOR OCTOBER AND HALF OF NOVEMBER

The Executive expects to be in Brackettville the 7th, 8th and 9th; in Sabinal the 10th, 11th and 12th; Del Rio, the 14th, 15th and 16th; Crystal City, the 17th, 18th and 19th; Carrizo Springs, the 21st, 22nd and 23rd; Asherton, the 24th, 25th and 26; Hondo and Medina County, the 28th, 29th 30th and 31st; Sabinal, November 1st and 2nd; Rock-springs, the 4th, 5th and 6th; Uvalde and Real County, the 7th, 8th and 9th; Eagle Pass the 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th.

A part of the above schedule is a tentative one and subject to change in order not to conflict with previously arranged community programs. We are very anxious to fit into a well planned program for the boy life of every community, and we hope to have committee meetings with representatives of all churches, schools, P. T. A.'s, service clubs and mothers' clubs of every town and county which we are trying to serve.

We expect to, with the assistance of the local committee, hold a court of review, a Court of Honor, and regular meetings of the four important committees in these places, and we ask for the hearty co-operation of all concerned. And we are all concerned, because who is not vitally interested in the future of every lad who will be a man some day.

Hondo and Medina County are looking forward to their annual fall fair. We hope that every Scout will realize that he is on "display" as well as all the other "fine things" of the community.

Troop No. 30 had a parents meeting recently, and they are planning to have their troop represented in the "Big Parade." We are sure that Troop No. 3 will be right in there too, and these two floats, presenting some pictures of correct boy living and training, will convince the thousands of visitors and boys of the communities round about Hondo and in her trade territory that they are interested in "Thoroughbred" Boys, too. This poem oft repeated fits here.

What Are You Raising?

Your're raising cotton and corn, you say

As fine as the earth will grow
You're raising cattle, and hogs and sheep

That win wherever they go
You're raising wheat that's hard to beat.

And I know you're coining the mon,
But tell me this, oh man of the soil,
How are you raising your son?

Do you take the time to talk to him,
Of the things he ought to know?
Do you teach him the good and bad of life,

And show him the way to go?
Does he trust in you as a son should do,

Do you make him your friend or slave?
Will he stand someday with his countrymen

Honest and strong and brave?
Oh, corn and cotton, and wheat and oats,

Are things that are well to grow.
And cattle and hogs and a bank account

Is well for a man I know.
But the ribbon you take and the money you make
Will bring but a mite of joy,
If you get to the top of the hill and find You've made a scrub of your boy.

THE SETTING HEN.

By Mrs. Irvin Pickle.

Some poultry raisers who have worked hard all the spring and early summer like to raise only a few chicks in the late summer and fall and turn the job over to Biddy. This is a mighty good plan. Of course she doesn't turn them out by the wholesale but she can raise you a few mighty fine chicks at little or no expense to you. In fact, it is mighty hard to improve on her methods in hatching and raising chicks. She understands her business and the poultry raiser can make profitable use of her services even if he operates the incubators and brooders.

For her nest I like a large coop about 3 1/2 or 4 ft. square, dirt floor, shed style, with a good roof. The coops should be about 20 inches high in front, sloping to about 12 inches in the back. Ventilate it properly near the top and make a door large enough for the hen to go in and out. In one corner on the dirt floor make a basin shaped hole and line it with a small bit of straw. When a hen becomes broody, place several nest eggs in the nest and test her on them. If she continues to sit and seems contented with her location, remove the nest eggs and give her as many eggs as she can cover well, usually about 15. Don't make the mistake of giving her too many just because the weather is hot and you think she can keep them warm. If she has too many, she can't turn them properly, will be likely to break some of them and the result will be a poor hatch of weak chicks. Don't make the nest basin too deep or the eggs will pile upon each other and break.

In the early fall while the weather is still hot the hens must be watched often very closely for lice. When you set one, give her a good dusting with sodium fluoride and again a few days before she is due to hatch. This will keep them down.

Keep plenty of whole corn, grit and fresh water before the hen at all times. Also keep a shallow box of wood ashes or road dust in her coop so she can take a dust bath when she comes off. I leave an opening in the coops large enough for a hen to go in and out. At each corner of opening I drive a small nail partly up to the board and fasten a piece of tow sack over this. When she becomes accustomed to her surroundings this is left open and she is allowed to come and go at will.

I like to set several hens at the same time, then at the proper time I can test the eggs; and if some are infertile, I can give all the fertile eggs to as many hens as it requires to cover them and give the fresh eggs to the others. When they hatch, as the weather is warm, one hen can brood all the chicks and the others can be released and soon will be laying again.

COW IN THRALL HERD MAKES PRODUCTION RECORD.

Agnes' Laddie Jolie an excellent young purebred Jersey producer in the dairy herd of Johnson & Son, Thrall, Texas, has just been awarded an American Jersey Cattle Club Silver Medal for her record in her first official production test. Starting on test at the age of 3 years and 8 months she yielded 544.18 lbs. of butterfat and 8,989 lbs. of milk in the ensuing 305 days, carrying calf for 209 days during the test period. During the best month of test she yielded 74.96 lbs. of butterfat and on five different occasions she produced more than 50 lbs. of butterfat per month. Her milk averaged 6.05% butterfat throughout the test.

The total yield of this new Silver Medal cow is equivalent to 650 lbs. of butter and 4,180 quarts of milk, or more than 2 lbs. of butter and 13 quarts of milk daily, for the 305 days of test.

Johnson & Son have an outstanding herd of purebred Jerseys and have been successfully carrying on production testing for some time. At the present five of the cows in their herd are on official test.

THREE BEAUTIFUL REASONS FOR 'WHY LEAVE HOME'

Dixie Lee, Jean Bary and Sue Carol in "Why Leave Home" Fox Movietone Musical Comedy version of "Cradle Snatchers"

AT LEAST three of the "reasons" for leaving home, as seen in "Why Leave Home", the Fox Movietone musical comedy which starts a week's engagement at the Greater Majestic theatre next week, would make any man leave his domicile in favor of the bright lights. Sue Carol, Dixie Lee and Jean Barry, the three charming girls who entice the tired business men from their apartments for hilarious revel, form a trio of pulchritude which has no rival on the speaking screen, and which supplies many of the giggling moments of this tureful production.

An adaptation of the noted stage play "The Cradle Snatchers", the all talking and singing version is even funnier than the original. Conrad, Gottler and Mitchell, the composers of Broadway musical comedies and songs as well as the numbers of "Fox Movietone Pictures" present several new and catchy melodies. The cast includes well known stage celebrities as Walter Catlett, Nick Stuart, David Rollins and Richard Keene.

The supporting stage show for this great picture at the Greater Majestic theatre next week is a brilliant one and features Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norworth in their celebrated sketch, "The Nigger." There are four other acts also.
